Internal Rules of Procedure

SECTION 100. Questions laid on the table must be taken up not later than the next regular meeting, otherwise they shall be considered abandoned and maybe brought up again only by a new motion.

SECTION 101 . A motion calling for the previous question requires for each approval a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Members present, but action on the principal question to which it is applied shall be determined by the vote necessary in each particular case as prescribed by the rules of the Sanggunian.

SECTION 102. A question cannot be postponed beyond the next Regular Meeting unless provisions have been made for the holding of such a meeting.

SECTION 103. A question may be postponed as a general order by a majority vote, or as a special order, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, of the Members present.

SECTION 104. No order of the day may be considered before the time to which it was assigned except by general consent or by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Members present by suspending the rule fixing its time as an order of the day.

SECTION 105. When a question is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend an amendment shall be in order, and any of said amendments may be withdrawn before a decision is held thereon.

SECTION 106. No motion on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment. An amendment that merely negates an affirmative proposition is likewise out of order.

SECTION 107. Once an amendment has been adopted or rejected, the same or substantially the same amendment cannot be reintroduced at the same meeting unless the vote on the original amendment has been reconsidered or the motion to amend has been withdrawn.

SECTION 108. Amendments to the title of an Ordinance or Resolution shall not be in order until after the text thereof has been approved. Amendments to the title shall be decided without debate.

SECTION 109. When an Ordinance or any other measure, decided by nominal voting, has been adopted or lost, it shall be in order for any Member who voted with the majority, at the same or the next meeting, to move for the reconsideration thereof, and such motion shall take precedence over all other question, except the motion to fix the time to which to adjourn, and to take a recess.

Internal Rules of Procedure

The motion to reconsider shall be passed by a majority vote of the Members present regardless of the vote required by the question to be considered. When voting is not nominal, any Member may ask for reconsideration.

SECTION 110. A motion to enter on the Minutes a motion to reconsider a question must be called up not later than the next meeting, unless the motion is made on the last day of a session in which case it may be called up for the reconsideration on the same day it was moved.

SECTION 111. An Ordinance, Resolution, or any other question may be rescinded, repealed, or expunged at any meeting subsequent to the one at which it was adopted, by a majority vote of the Members present with notice thereof given at the previous meeting, or by a two-third vote of the Members present, without need of such notice. A motion to rescind, repeal or expunge maybe made only if the time to reconsider the controversial question has already elapsed.

SECTION 112. Rules relating to the Order of Business, business procedure, and similar standing rules, except those prescribed by statutory law, maybe suspended by a two-third vote as the question for which the rule is suspended remains pending before the Body.

The reconsideration of a question maybe objected to by a two-third (2/3) vote of the Members present but the motion may not be applied to directive or communication from a higher governing Body, Committee reports, and amendments to the rules of the Sanggunian.

SECTION 113. An appeal must be made immediately after the decision appealed from has been made; if any business has intervened, it shall be out of order. It is debatable except when it relates to indecorum, priority of business, transgression of the rule of speaking, or if it arises out of an undebatable question. If the question is debatable, any Member may speak in respect to the appeal once, but the Presiding Officer may speak on it twice, first, in explaining his decision, and then in answering to the arguments against his decision.

SECTION 114. A call for a division of the assembly should be made immediately after the result of the vote has been announced, even if someone has the floor but before another have been stated by the Chair.

SECTION 115. A motion to read any part of the rules of the Sanggunian is equivalent to a call to order and shall have the precedence corresponding to it.
